IASTE 2014: Whose Tradition?

ABSTRACT DUE DATE: February 17, 2014

SUBMISSION PROCESS

- After logging into the submission system, please read the instructions on this screen carefully.
- Follow the link “Click here to submit a new abstract”.
- Submitting an abstract is a multi-step process. Each step asks several questions:

1. All Steps: If you do not answer a question – for example you may not be sure in which category your abstract should be considered – you can skip the question and return to it later.
2. Final Step: Once you have completed your abstract and answered all the mandatory questions, click the “Finish” button. Your abstract will be assigned a reference number and you will receive an email confirmation. You must have answered all mandatory questions to successfully complete your submission.

- All presenters must submit an abstract of no more than 500 words that describes the presentation's purpose and conclusions.
- You are responsible for any spelling, grammatical, and typographical errors. Please be clear and concise and avoid jargon.
- If your abstract is accepted, you may make changes to your abstract until July 14, 2014.
- Submission of your abstract grants IASTE permission to include it in the special Traditional Dwellings and Settlements issue and to disseminate it electronically.
- Following a blind peer-review process, papers may be accepted for presentation in the conference and/or publication in the Working Paper Series.
- Proposals for complete panels are welcome. All papers must be written and presented in English.

FORMATTING INSTRUCTIONS FOR BODY OF THE ABSTRACT

- Do not put your name and affiliation in the body of the abstract.
- Do not enter the title in the body of the abstract.
- Use American Standard English to guarantee consistency with the Traditional Dwellings and Settlement Review Working Paper Series publication.
- Do not use abbreviations if possible.
- Do not use underlining, boldface type, and italics.
- Do not use bulleted lists.
- Do not include phone numbers or e-mail addresses in the body of the abstract.
- Do not use all caps.

AMENDING A SUBMISSION

You can change your answers to the questions on the submission form or change the abstract itself until the February 17, 2014 deadline.
